

MICT Management Welcome New Minister and Deputy Minister

This afternoon the MICT management welcomed newly appointed Minister, Hon. Peya Mushelenga, and his Deputy Minister, Hon. Emma Theofilus to the team.

Addressing management, the minister stressed, “We have a mammoth task of advocating for the Namibian image of Nationhood in order to unite all Namibians, so that they all feel that they are part and parcel of the Namibian society.” Equally important, we have a task to ensure that information dissemination about grn programmes reaches all corners of our country including the rural communities. It is therefore important that we are aggressive in our information dissemination, the minister added.

Theofilus on her part said “knowledge is power and if every person is equipped with the right to information, they will be able to make the right choices or contribute their part in ensuring they become a productive citizen of the country, hence the importance of Access to Information Bill.

Both Ministers expressed their joy in joining the MICT team and believe that they will be able to accomplish the task entrusted to them by his Excellency the president, with the help of the Executive Director, management and staff of the ministry.
