From the desk of the Minister

The mandate of Government is to bring services closer to the Namibian people and the people closer to services. Thus, we take note of the need to facilitate proper contact between Government offices bearers and the recipients of Government services. It is for this reason that we dedicate this edition of the Government Information Bulletin (GIB) to provide you with updated government address list. The user-friendly directory has proven to be a viable educational tool as well as a provision for a channel through which the public could make inquiries on any matter of public interest.

Namibia prides itself with an atmosphere of peace, stability and good governance on the African continent. It is this atmosphere that promotes the implementation of our developmental policies, programmes and projects in all sectors of our society throughout the country. Let us all cherish and guard it jealously. Where there is peace, there is progress.

President of the Republic of Namibia

H.E. President Dr. Hage G. Geingob

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

State House, 1 Engelberg Street, Ausblick.

The President is constitutionally defined as the Head of State and of the Government, as well as the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces and the custodian of peace, security and stability of the country. The primary responsibilities of the President are to use his executive powers in the best interest of the country and to uphold, protect and defend the Constitution.

The Presidency must operate in a manner in which it provides leadership to the Government to ensure the implementation of the Election Manifesto by ensuring an effective and professional civil service which is able to provide the Namibian nation with efficient service delivery.

Effectively communicate government programs and policies to the Namibian nation and ensure national understanding of key issues.

This should translate into a country where the state and society works towards a common vision of holding public servants and citizens equally accountable to a shared vision of inclusivity and accountability.

Ensures appropriate alignment and co-operation of government Ministries and State-owned Enterprises by ensuring strategic co-ordination of efforts and drive outcomes;

Monitor and evaluate the individual and collective performance of Ministers, as well as their assigned Ministries. This is to ensure output which focuses on cost-sensitive effective results and cost-efficiency;

Supports the key roles in the Presidency to exercise their constitutional responsibilities while promoting social cohesion and national unity;

Shape how Namibians relate to one another and to the world and allowing the constitutional imperatives of inclusivity and national reconciliation.

The role of the Presidency is to provide support services to the President, Vice-President, Prime Minister and Deputy Prime Minister in the execution of their constitutional obligations and duties.

The Presidency includes all of the roles which are in the direct line of constitutional succession, as well as other positions such as Ministers and Special Advisors and staff members from the public service whose function would be to service the Presidency in the execution of their responsibilities.

The President and Prime Minister, together with their respective Deputies, represent the executive and administrative heartbeat of Government business. The Ministers and Special Advisors assigned to this office will be required to provide strategic leadership, management and administrative support services to the above-mentioned Constitutional Mandates.

It is for all of these roles to be institutionalized within the Presidency to ensure strategic leadership and communication to both the State and society.

The Government Information Bulletin was established through Cabinet decision number 139/04/07/06/006 as an official information bulletin to publicise the Government's programs, policies and activities for the benefit of Government institutions and the Namibian public. All the Government institutions contribute toward the Bulletin.

The Government Information Bulletin is published Quarterly by the Ministry of Information and Communication Technology. To meet the specific information needs of the communities, the public is invited to send comments and suggestions on Government projects, programmes and policies, which will then be covered in the bulletin.

The Bulletin is distributed free through the Ministry's regional offices. The public and organisations are welcome to subscribe to the Bulletin, but mailing costs will be for the account of the subscriber.

INTRODUCTION: NAMIBIA NATIONAL SYMBOLS

National Symbols are visual and conceptual emblems or representations which serve to communicate a range of ascribed, apparent or assumed meanings. They encode particulars of a nation’s sovereign existence or her identifying characteristics in the community of nations. Over a period of time, such emblems or symbols become deeply embedded in memory of a people and thus serve as a source of national dignity and patriotic pride. As they become more and more widely used and accepted, national symbols are capable of inspiring in people and abiding loyalty to their homeland. All national symbols are protected by law, which prohibits any act or intent to insult, display contempt or hold them up to ridicule.

National Flag

The national flag is a symbol of our struggle for national unity. It symbolises peace, unity and common loyalty to Namibia. The National Flag represents the nation in every aspect. The Flag is a rectangular, with the colours arranged diagonally across it. The top left-hand triangle is blue, the centre band red and the bottom right-hand triangle is green. The colours are separated by narrow white bands. On the blue triangle is a golden sun with twelve triangular rays. The rays are separated from the golden centre by a blue ring.

- The sun symbolises life and energy. The colour gold represents warmth and the colour of our plains and the Namib Desert.
- Blue symbolises the Namibian sky, the Atlantic Ocean, our marine resources and the importance of rain and water.
- Red represents the Namibian people, their heroism and determination to build a future of equal opportunities for all.
- White refers to peace and unity.
- Green symbolises Namibia’s vegetation and agricultural resources.

President Standard

The Flag of Namibia’s President represents the supreme authority of the Namibian Head of State and is flown to indicate his presence. The Flag is also flown on the President’s car. The Flag is rectangular with three triangles in the colours blue, gold and green. The gold is charged with the Coat of Arms. The use of the President’s Flag is restricted to Namibia. When the President travels to other countries, only the National Flag is used. This means that only the National Flag can be flown in foreign countries to represent Namibia, while the President’s Flag represents the status and authority of the President in Namibia.

National Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms represents Namibia and its people. It is the official emblem of the Government Service as a statutory body. The Coat of Arms is therefore depicted on official stationeries, used by the Public service. The Coat of Arms may not be used by private bodies without the express permission of the President. The National Flag is reproduced on the shield. The animals and plant on the Coat of Arms are used symbolically. The African Fish Eagle has excellent vision and is thus a symbol of the farsightedness of our country’s leaders. The Oryx (Gemsbok) is renowned for its courage, elegance and pride. The Welwitschia mirabilis, a unique desert plant, is a fighter for survival and therefore a symbol of our nation’s fortitude and tenacity.
